

The Upper Room

conversations with Jesus

Sixth Sunday of Lent
Palm Sunday

APRIL 2, 2023 | 9:30 AM WORSHIP

Some of Jesus' most personal and powerful teachings are conversations with His disciples in the book of John. Take your place in the upper room; hear the heart of God that still speaks today in this Lent season of reflection, repentance and renewal.

The next day the great crowd that had come for the festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, "Hosanna!" "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" "Blessed is the king of Israel!" John 12:18

COMMUNION SUNDAY

We joyfully share communion together today, the sacrament in which we remember Jesus' sacrifice and renew our commitment to be united with Christ and His Church. We welcome all baptized Christians who are sorry for their sin, love Jesus, and desire to serve him to join us in the celebration of the Lord's Supper as the elements are passed.

To others among us: we are deeply grateful you are with us; we are eager to share with you the joy of knowing Jesus and living in community as his disciples. We warmly invite you to reflect on these communion verses during our time together.

Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. Psalm 139:23

...for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. Romans 3:23

But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. Ephesians 2:4-5

Teach me your way, Lord, that I may rely on your faithfulness; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name. Psalm 86:11

EASTER LILY MEMORIALS

The Endowment Committee invites you to celebrate Easter by remembering a loved one with a donation to the Endowment Fund. Your donation will build a legacy of faith and provide for the continued ministry of CrossPoint.

Today is the last Sunday to reserve yours at the lily table after the service!

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Wednesday, April 5

Open hours from 6:30-8:00 PM | Experience the stations at your own pace
Verses and meditations provided

Christianity has always held the death and resurrection of Jesus as the most central part of the story of God. The Stations of the Cross began with early Christians retracing Jesus' final steps in Jerusalem up to the hill where He was crucified.

The art stations in the worship center have elements and ideas from Jesus' journey during Holy Week. Come to be renewed at the foot of the cross.

WELCOME, GUESTS!

Welcome to CrossPoint, thank you for coming to worship with us today! We would love to meet you, please stop by Connection Point in the central lobby after the service. You can also fill out the Connection Card online at this QR code. We're so glad you're here!

- What was something you heard in the passages or message that made an impact on you?
- What are the triad of virtues? How would you define each one?
- Read John 16:25-33. What does Jesus say about love? About faith? About hope?
- Love: what did we learn about love in this sermon series?
- Faith: what is the connection between what we believe and how we live?
- Hope: how is biblical hope different from how we use this word in our world today? What are some of the future promises of God that inspire you to love and follow Jesus?
- What is one practical way you can apply this sermon and Bible readings to your life?

The CrossPoint Library is open every Sunday before and after the service!
