

THE BOOK OF ACTS

APRIL 7, 2024 | 9:30 AM WORSHIP

In this series, we'll explore the early days of the Church and how the Holy Spirit led believers to preach the gospel in all places to all people. As the good news of salvation spread and the Church grew, they faced challenges and had to articulate their newfound faith. From shipwrecks to testimony before kings, the Book of Acts has much to teach us about living by the Spirit in a culture that prioritizes self.

On the first Sunday of the month, we share communion together, the sacrament in which we remember Jesus' sacrifice and renew our commitment to be united with Christ and His Church.

Communion
SUNDAY

We welcome all baptized Christians who are sorry for their sin, love Jesus, and desire to serve him to join us in the celebration of the Lord's Supper as the elements are passed.

To our guests among us: we are grateful you are with us and eager to share with you the joy of knowing Jesus and living in community. We invite you to reflect on the communion verses below during our time together.

Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. Psalm 139:23-24

But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved. Ephesians 2:4-5

Benevolence
OFFERING

Benevolence offerings are given as a response to communion. The deacons use this fund to provide essential needs to church and community members. Place your gift in a marked giving envelope in the offering bag.

The Church Watches and Waits | Acts 1:1-11

Danny Unterkofler, Pastor of Community Life

1. The story of Jesus does not stop with the resurrection, but continues on through the outpouring of the _____ into the people of God.
2. Jesus teaches the early disciples that their focus needs to be on being _____ for Jesus, not restoring the kingdom of Israel.
3. The most impactful and astounding event that happened for the early church was the _____ of the Holy Spirit.
4. The Ascension of Christ is the guarantee that Jesus' work of salvation is _____ and that he will _____.

M Acts 2:1-13

T Acts 2:14-28

W Acts 2:29-41

Th Acts 2:42-47

F John 14

Sa John 16

Su Acts 2:1-47

“This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time,” declares the LORD. “I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts.”
Jeremiah 31:33

- In Acts 1:1-11, what stood out to you that perhaps you never noticed before? Explain.
- In Acts 1:4, Jesus instructs the disciples to stay in Jerusalem and wait for the promised gift from the Father. Why might they have desired to leave the city, and what emotions might they be experiencing during this waiting period?
- Like the disciples' fixation on the restoration of Israel, we too can dwell on unanswered questions from God. What aspects of your life must you release to focus on Jesus' calling?
- The call to witness for Jesus can be overwhelming. In Romans 12:9-21, Paul illustrates true witnessing - how does this inspire and challenge you? How was Mary a great example of loving Jesus? How are you challenged by her example?
