FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Today is the fourth Sunday of Lent. Lent marks the 40 days leading up to Easter weekend for the Church to prepare for Christ's death on the cross for our sins and resurrection from the grave for our salvation. In this season of reflection, we journey with Jesus to the cross and orient our hearts, minds and habits to focus towards Him. Explore resources for personal and family devotions at crosspointchino.org/lent.

OFFERING DURING WORSHIP

We will resume passing the offering bags as an act of worship during the service today, with the exception of the mask required section. A black offering box is also available on the back wall near the tech booth. It will be there before the service and until the end of the passing of the offering. Online giving is always available at crosspointchino.org/give.

COMMUNION NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday we celebrate communion together as the body of Christ. The Bible teaches us that we should examine ourselves before we participate in the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 11:27-29). This examination begins by giving careful thought to any areas of unrepentant sin in our lives. We should take time to pray and invite the Holy Spirit to bring conviction to our hearts and minds. Find reflections for preparation at crosspointchino.org/sacraments.

We will resume the passing of communion elements during the worship service on Sunday, April 3 with the exception of the mask required section. Individual, pre-packaged communion may be received from an elder located near the tech booth prior to the worship service.
